12. PRICING INSTRUCTIONS

- 12.1. Complete all sections of the Pricing Schedule form provided in the tender document.
- 12.2. Ensure all costs are included in your pricing, covering both direct and indirect expenses (e.g., materials, labour, overheads).
- 12.3. Prices must be stated as firm throughout twelve-month period as detailed in schedule of quantities.
- 12.4. All prices must include Value Added Tax (VAT).
- 12.5. Factor in current market conditions, material costs, labour rates, and other variables that may affect pricing.
- 12.6. Avoid under-pricing or overpricing; ensure your bid is competitive while sustainable for your business.
- 12.7. Bidders are required to submit their pricing in two distinct sections corresponding to the two product categories outlined in Section above of these bid documents. Categories are outlined as follows:

No	Category	Brief Product Description	Qty
1	A	Solid Technology Belt Press	23
2	B	Bellmer Belt Press	4

The evaluation on price alteration will be conducted as follows:

- 12.8. Where the tender award strategy is to evaluate and award per item or category, the following must apply:
  - (i) If there is an alteration on the rate but no alteration on the total for the item or category, the bidder will not be disqualified.
  - (ii) If there is an alteration on the total for the item/s without authentication, bidders will only be disqualified for alteration per item or category.
- 12.9. Where the tender award strategy is to evaluate and award total bid offer, the following must apply:
  - (i) If there is an alteration on the rate, total for the line item, sub-total/ sum brought/carried forward for the section but no alteration on the total bid offer, the bidder will not be disqualified.
  - (ii) If there is an alteration on the total bid offer on form of offer, then the amount in words must be considered or vice-versa.

- (iii) If there is an unauthenticated alteration on the total bid offer and the amount in words is not authenticated the bidders will be disqualified for the entire tender.

12.10. Where the tender pricing schedule or bill of quantities is requesting rates/price from bidder/s without providing a total, the following will apply:

If there is an unauthenticated alteration on the unit rate/price the bidder must be disqualified

Bidders may choose to bid for one or both categories.
